א מעשה ביים

שבת טיש

7

The Treasure Under the Bridge

לעילוי נשמת הגאון הצדיק המפורסם

רבי אהרן גד כ"ץ זצ"ל, אבדק"ק קאפיש

בן הרה"צ רבי אשר שמואל זצ"ל, נלב"ע ז' כסלו תשע"ט

תהא נשמתו צרורה בצרור החיים

Reb Yitzchak was a poor Jewish man. One night he dreamed a dream. He saw a bridge, and under the bridge lay a great treasure of gold.

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

In the morning he got up and thought: “Maybe the dream is true! I must go and see!”

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

He set out at once on the road to the bridge.

This zechus can be yours!

This booklet is in the zechus of the chosson and kallah

May they merit to build a faithful Jewish home, in the path of our holy Rebbes, and to raise upright and blessed generations, with simcha, blessing, nachas and peace of mind.

Binyan adei ad!

In honor of the dear boy
Dovid Einhorn n"y
who merited
to complete the entire Sefer Tehillim
May Hashem accept
all his tefillos!

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

Under the bridge he took a shovel and began to dig. He dug and dug...

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

Suddenly another Jewish man came over. “What are you doing here?” he asked. Reb Yitzchak told him his dream.

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

The other man began to laugh. “You believe in dreams?! I had a dream too! I dreamed that under the oven in the house of a Jewish man named Reb Yitzchak lies a treasure!”

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

Reb Yitzchak stood still under the bridge. He understood: "Reb Yitzchak—that's me! Why, that's my oven!"

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

He ran home quickly. At once he began digging under the oven of his house.

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

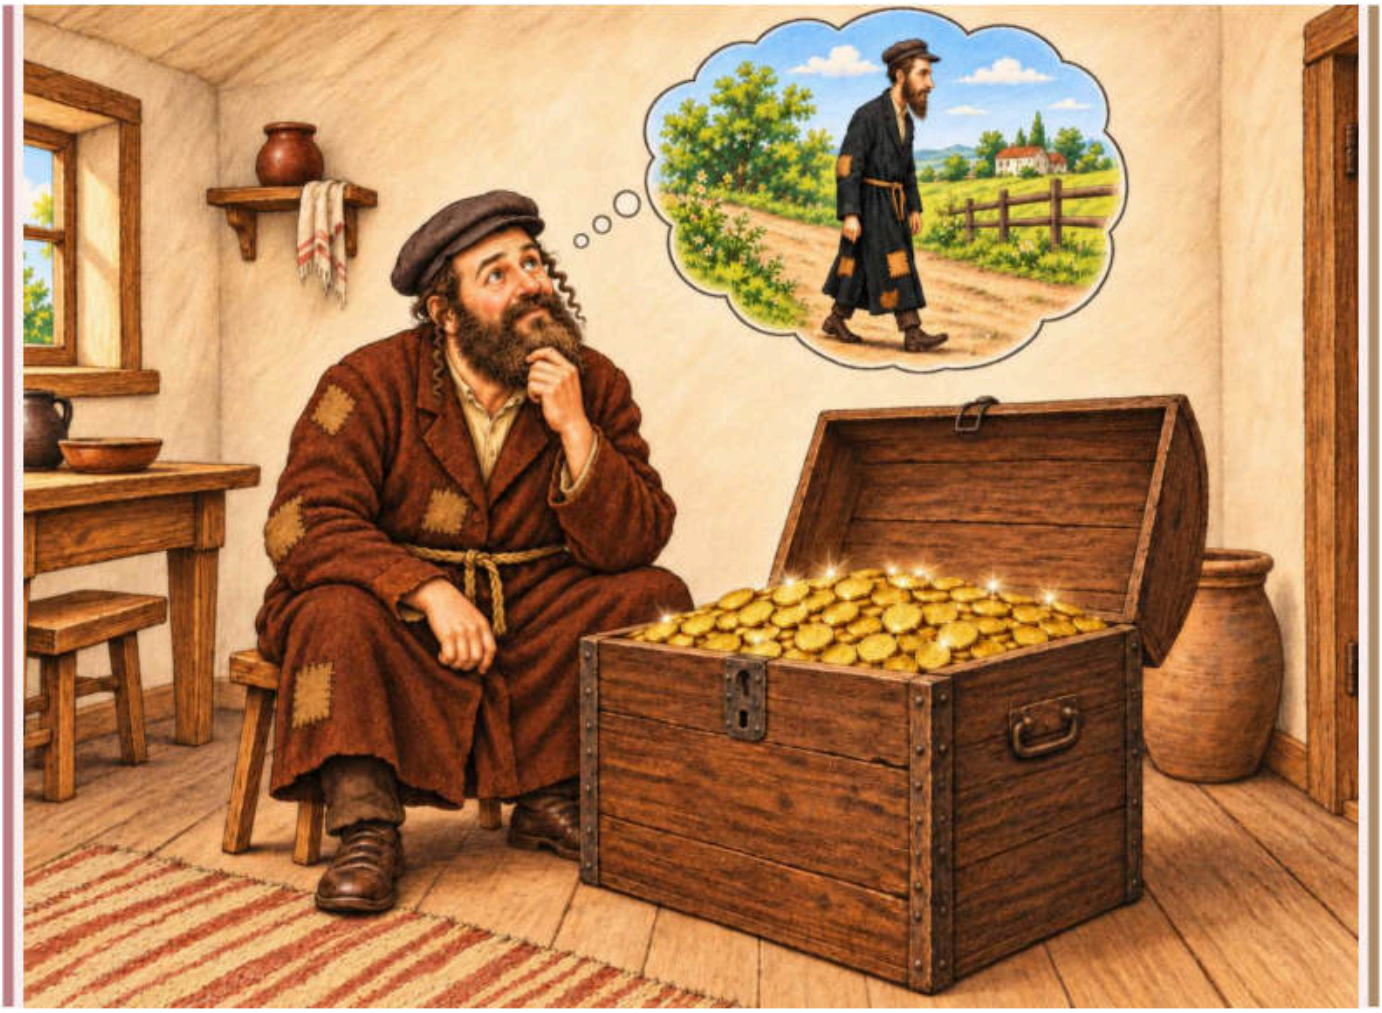

And what does he see? A chest full of gold! Reb Yitzchak was overjoyed and amazed.

© 2026 All rights reserved.
To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

But Reb Yitzchak thought: “Maybe the treasure isn’t mine? Maybe it belongs to the man I met under the bridge?” He took the chest and set off to bring it to that man.

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

But something remarkable happened halfway there! The two men met. The man from the bridge came toward him with a smile, carrying a chest of his own. He said: “I dug under the bridge and found a treasure, and I’m bringing it to you!”

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

Neither man knew what to do. They decided to go and ask the holy Baal Shem Tov.

© 2026 All rights reserved.
To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

They told the whole story to the holy Baal Shem Tov, may his zechus protect us. The holy Baal Shem Tov smiled and said: “You have a daughter, and you have a son. Become mechutanim! Use the money for the wedding expenses and for the dowry.”

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

The Treasure Under the Bridge

The two men shook hands and wished each other mazel tov! They finalized the shidduch. It is a segulah to tell this story on the night after the holy Shabbos, at the Melaveh Malkah.

© 2026 All rights reserved.

To receive the booklet every week, send an email to: ashabbosstory@gmail.com

Yes, your greetings give us strength!

We want you to know that we hear every voice message! It is a joy for us to hear how much you enjoy the stories, and it gives us so much energy and strength to keep going. Thank you!

A small note:

We hear the voice messages, but we cannot call back. If you would like an answer, please send us a text to (718) 635-0616 or an email to ashabbosstory@gmail.com.

An opportunity to share in bringing zechus to many!

You can take a share in the cost of publishing our weekly booklet, in honor of a simcha, as a zechus for your children, or in memory of your loved ones.

$200 – A whole booklet

In your zechus!

The whole week's booklet will be dedicated in honor of your simcha, as a zechus for your children, or in memory of your loved ones.

$50 – Your name in the booklet

Your name, or the name of anyone you choose, will appear in the booklet as a zechus or in memory of a loved one.

With your support we will be able, with Hashem's help, to keep spreading stories of tzaddikim, full of emunah and yiras Shamayim, for Jewish children. The booklet will always stay free for everyone!

To take a share:

Send a text to (718) 635-0616 or an email to

ashabbosstory@gmail.com

Want to receive the booklet every week?

Send an email to ashabbosstory@gmail.com with the word "subscribe", and you will receive the booklet every Sunday at 9 AM by email.

Good Shabbos!

© 2026 All rights reserved.